News Letter Issue Date: December 18, 2008

Merry Christmas Tennessee Farm Fresh Participants! The season has surely slowed down for most, and now it's time to catch up. We have been very busy with the Tennessee Farm Fresh workshops which were held across the state in 4 different locations. The workshops were a success, and had an excellent turn out in attendance. We appreciate you taking advantage of this great opportunity.

Announcements:

Time is flying and the New Year is closely approaching us! In 2009 we will be updating the brochures and we need your help! These updates will include new members, and new information. As your products, hours, and availability change, this information will better represent you in the 2009 season. REMEMBER: since you became a member in 2008, there is no fee due for 2009 membership. To properly print, and distribute this information, we would need to have your updated information by February 14, 2009. Enclosed is a new 2009 application and guideline form. Please fill out this information and return it to:
